Program Overview

The Crime Free Multi-Housing (CFMH) Program of Saskatoon is designed to help residents, owners and managers of rental communities, with the cooperation of police, keep illegal activity off their property and to provide a safer, more habitable environment for residents.

CFMH is pro-manager, pro-resident, and anti-crime. There are three phases to the program:

Phase One: Eight hour Training Workshop

- Overview of the CFMH Program
- Applicant Screening Process
- Combating Illegal Activity (Drugs & Gangs)
- Police & Community, Working Together
- Proactive Property Management
- Residential Tenancy Legislation
- Building Security Assessment
- Working with the Residents

Phase Two: Security Assessment

- This is a free, complete assessment of the building and grounds by a certified Crime Free Multi-Housing (CFMH) official.

Phase Three: Resident Crime Watch Training and Safety Social

- Information on crime prevention techniques, supports safer rental properties.

Once all three phases are completed, the property is fully certified. This allows use of the CFMH sign, use of the CFMH logo in advertising, and the addition of the building to the list of police-approved, crime free accommodation. Certification must be renewed annually.
