CRIME FREE MULTI-HOUSING (CFMH) Keeping Illegal Activity Off Rental Property

Saskatoon Police Service

Honour - Spirit - Vision

These are the things you will learn...

Program Overview

The Crime Free Multi-Housing Program assists residents, owners and managers of rental property in keeping illegal activity off their rental property.

There are 3 phases to the program:

Phase One: Training Seminar

- One-day workshop teaches the concepts of creating crime-free buildings.
- Introduction to Saskatoon Fire Department, Office of Residential Tenancies (ORT), and Sask Landlords Association (SKLA) rules and policies.

Phase Two: Security Audit

- The program requires the rental property to meet 9 mandatory security requirements including proper locks, lighting and landscaping.

Phase Three: Resident Safety Social

- The property owner/manager will organize a Resident Safety Social.
- The Saskatoon Police Service will introduce and explain the concept of the program & discuss safety tips.
- The rental property can post Crime Free Multi-Housing signs.

Cost of Drug and Gang Activity in Rental Property

When criminals and other destructive residents operate out of rental property, neighbourhoods suffer and landlords pay a high price.

That price may include:

- Loss of rent due to an eviction or extended repair periods.
- Loss of valued residents.
- Property damage arising from abuse, retaliation, neglect and police raids.
- Fear and frustration when dealing with dangerous and threatening residents.
- Decline in property values, particularly when the activity begins affecting the reputation of the neighbourhood.
- Increased resentment and anger between neighbours and property managers/landlords.
- Fire resulting from illegal drug manufacturing.
- Closure of your property for an extended period while police investigate criminal activity.

Prevention and Applicant Screening

- Developing safety awareness.
- How to be a proactive property manager.
- Benefits of applicant screening.
- Tips to strengthen rental agreements.
- Maintaining a fire-safe environment.

Drug and Gang Issues

- Warning signs of drug and gang activity.
- What to do if your residents or their guests are conducting illegal activities on your property.
- Role of the police.
- Crisis resolution and the eviction process.

Use of the Crime Free Multi-Housing Lease Addendum

- As a tool to evict problem tenants through the ORT.
- To discourage would-be criminals from renting space in your property.

Crime Prevention Through Design

- Reduce opportunities for crime.
- Improve residents' perception of safety.
- Strengthen community bonds.
- Implement crime prevention techniques.
