SASKATOON POLICE SERVICE
BE THE DIFFERENCE

Social Media Terms of Use

Terms of use for the official social media pages of the Saskatoon Police Service (SPS) in Saskatoon, Saskatchewan, Canada. These pages were created to provide people who live and work in Saskatoon, or others with an interest in the SPS, access to information about the SPS and a platform to interact. Social media pages are monitored and managed by the Public Relations and Strategic Communications Division (PR&SC).

Comments posted by others on the SPS Facebook page are not to be considered the opinion of the SPS nor does the SPS endorse any third-party comments.

The SPS welcomes a person's right to express their opinion and encourages posters to keep comments related to content on this page.

In case of emergency, or if you need police assistance, dial 9-1-1.

Do not use social media pages to report a crime. To report a crime, please contact the SPS nonemergency line at 975-8300 or Crime Stoppers at 1-800-222-8477.

Before posting on SPS social media pages, please review the terms below:

- A posting on an SPS page constitutes acceptance of these terms.
- If you post information related to a crime on this page, you may be placing yourself in the position of becoming a witness in court proceedings.
- The SPS reserves the right to remove and/or block anyone who posts inappropriate material as determined by the SPS.
- The SPS reserves the right to remove any comments that are inappropriate or offensive, including comments that:
  - defame, abuse, harass, stalk, threaten or violate the legal rights of others;
  - include racism, hatred, slander, threats, obscenity, violence, vulgarity, spam or advertisements;
  - have personal information about another person or that violate a person's privacy interests, include copyrighted material belonging to another person; and
  - contain links to inappropriate or offensive websites.

Postings are subject to all applicable Federal and Provincial legislation.

Updated: November 2026